V.K.Neelakanta Rao,
Guardian of Minor Missaldar,
Bhimasena Rao. ... Petitioner.

Sub : Village Officers - Hospet Taluk - Kallaghatta and Dhanapuram villages - Deputy Karnam Kesava Rao reinstated - Petition of Neelakanta Rao -- V.K., Guardian of Minor Missaldar Bhimasena Rao.

Ref : L.Dis. A.No. 89/52 dated 21-1-1952 of the Board of Revenue, Madras.

The humble petition of V.K.Neelakanta Rao, Guardian of minor Missaldar Bheemasena Rao of Khallagatta and Danapuram Villages, Hospet Taluk, most respectfully showeth :-

1. That the orders of the Honuurable Board declining to interfere in the matter are not in the interests of the minor and the village administration.

2. That the Honourable Board has not taken into consideration the fact that the appeal of the Deputy Karnam to the Collector was time barred.

3. That the Hon'ble Board has not given sufficient consideration to the fact that the Deputy Karnam is about 60 years old and he could not attend to the arduous duties of a Karnam.

4. That the Hon'ble Board has not taken into consideration the fact that the Deputy Karnam has not been residing in the village Nagenahalle, since the date of his first appointment.

5. That the Hon'ble Board has failed to call for a further report from the Tahsildar in respect of the allegations against the Deputy Karnam as stated in para 14 of the petition to the Hon'ble Board.

2

6. It is prayed that the Government will be pleased to peruse the records and call for a further report from the Tahsildar and be pleased to set aside the orders of the Collector in D.Dis. No.13595/51 dated 4-12-51.

Dated at Madras, this 31st Day of January 1952.

Recently the High has held that the office of deputy under Act II of 1894 is statutory and that the Board has no revisional jurisdiction. In that connection, Legal have stated that the office of deputy under Act III of 1895 is also statutory and that the Govt. cannot interfere in such cases. The petn. is signed by the Advocate and not by the petnr The Advocate has however filed a vakalat. under the rules, action is taken on representations from only principals and not on those running in the name of advocates. further the petnr has not enclosed the orders of the R.D.O. the com in the matter The draft above is for approval.
